

Dear Anne

Words cannot really express what I am feeling right now I just felt that I had to write to you. I can only hope that you are feeling pleased with yourself by the part you played in sending an innocent old man to prison. You and I both know that if the incentive of money given to you by Mary-Ellen and the police force had not been there then you wouldn't have inflicted this on either yourself or my family. A family, I may add who cared about you when no-one else did.

We will never understand why you did what you did because you and I both know that what you all said happened, didn't.

Anne, you were like a sister to me but something turned your head, I can only guess who.

Take care of yourself, John and the boys. We will continue to fight to clear my dad's name as more and more people come forward in his support against his accusers.

May you all live in repentance for the rest of your lives.

Heather
